RE: HBO FILMS PRESENTS: "IF THESE WALLS COULD TALK II"

You may have heard of HBO Films' IF THESE WALLS COULD TALK II, set for a March 5 debut on HBO. (It follows the 1996 top-rated IF THESE WALLS COULD TALK I, which dealt with women's reproductive choices in three different decades.) WALLS II focuses on the struggles of lesbians in the latter part of the 20th century. The film showcases top women filmmakers who explore female-oriented issues in a daring, adult context. Vanessa Redgrave, Chloë Sevigny, Michelle Williams, Ellen DeGeneres and Sharon Stone star in three stories that span 40 years and six lives and a shared search for love and acceptance.

HBO will host an invitation only screening of IF THESE WALLS COULD TALK II at 8:00 p.m. on Monday, Feb. 28 at the Woodruff Arts Center's Rich Auditorium. Following the 90-minute film, HBO will host a reception in the theatre lobby after the film. We cordially invite your organization to participate in this special sneak preview. This opportunity is offered at no cost to your organization.

Since there are multiple lesbian groups in Atlanta, we would like to offer each organization 50 invitations to this special event. You may include your Boards of Directors, top contributors, new prospects, dedicated members, new members or those who win a ticket at an upcoming group event. HBO Films and event invitations may not be used for any fundraising purposes. We do not require your members' names and addresses, but we must have the names of those members and their ONE guest who RSVP to the event, for security and IRS purposes, by the 2/23 cut-off date. Your organization will be charged with the responsibility of mailing the invitations promptly upon receipt and tracking the acceptances and intentions to bring a guest. That confirmed information should be in my hands no later than by February 23.

Please encourage your guests to RSVP upon receipt of the invitation. We expect this event to be a "hot ticket" since it is so highly targeted. Upon reaching maximum capacity of 425 confirmed guests, we will decline further acceptances. Please fax your organization's acceptance of this invitation by completing the confirmation sheet attached. My fax number is 404-261-4185. My direct phone line is 404-239-6640. We look forward to your response no later than Feb. 11.
